

Broken Wings

Again the Fire starts burning
I feel it deep in my soul
And again my mind is turning
I'm running out of control

No place to go, no place to hide
My Enemy is deep inside
So many times I tried to change
But every time I failed

You broke my wings before I learned to fly
2 X Thank you for your support
So many things undone, unsaid
You'll follow me until I die

Doesn't matter how to escape
There is no way out
These scars inside myself
Are driving me insane

Is there release in lifetime?
A coming home before death
Can we await forgiveness?
For all we have done wrong

You broke my wings before I learned to fly
2 X Thank you for your support
So many things undone, unsaid
You'll follow me until I die

What doing with these feelings
Of anger, hate and shame
Since ignorance has broken me
It's never been the same

The time moves fast so I can't change
What's happened all those years?
And nevertheless I miss you
Alone with so much tears

You broke my wings before I learned to fly
Thank you for your support
So many things undone, unsaid
You'll follow me until I die
