

Killed by ignorance

Call it a failure of the system
That we all live in the same world
A mistake in godfathers plan
That we must share the same space

What did they idiots don't understand
Have they never heard of holy life
Is it so difficult to realize
That other creatures have rights too

Hey stupid we got some news for you
Pre. This time you'll lose the fight
Society has turned and learned
The wolf is back and that's right

Our brothers are killed by ignorance
Ref. get ready to attack
Brother wolf is killed by envy
Prepare to strike back

They march again stupid with empty eyes
Not worth the bullets in their guns
Grown up without a modicum of sense
Still believing in ancient lies

That's the way they treated you
Forefather of man's best friend
The way they give you respect
This injustice now has an end

Hey stupid we got some news for you
Pre. This time you'll lose the fight
Society has turned and learned
The wolf is back and that's right

Our brothers are killed by ignorance
Ref. get ready to attack
Brother wolf is killed by envy
Prepare to strike back

Welcome back to your hunting ground
The place where you forever should be
The time is right for your being back home
And that is nice to see

For all the people who can't live with you
There's only one thing left to say
Fuck off and die you imbeciles
The wolf is here to stay
